I'm resending the below since it appears the attachment may not have gone through.

John & Mark --

Attached is a revised proposed agreement. We cannot accept the draft you circulated on Wednesday but have added language clarifying that the settlement is intended to have no legal effect in other countries (and of course the settlement containing this language will be so ordered), and can make the settlement contingent on the release of funds in the Netherlands. We've structured the latter so that in the event of a failure to return the funds, the action will revert to the status quo ante—we will proceed and the judge will set a trial date approximately as far out from any resumption of the action as we are from trial right now (a little shorter in fact). Though we anticipate that the Netherlands will in fact release the funds, we cannot make any kind of financial indemnity or agree to a contingency that would materially limit our ability to litigate the case should the payment not be released (as a standstill without adjourning the trial would).

Please let me know your client's position on this as soon as possible, and in any event no later than Thursday. If you'd like to discuss anything by phone, I'm flexible the rest of today if you let me know a good time by email. Thank you very much.
